HENRY PATTILLO (Pattulloch in Scotland)

HENRY PATTILLO, born near Dundee, Scotland, came to America in 1840. He pursued his studies for the Presbyterian ministry at Hanover, Virginia. There he married Mary Anderson in 1755.

After examination and reception into the ministry he continued to pursue his studies until he was sent to England in the service of Princeton College.

He afterwards served churches of Virginia for several years, then removed to North Carolina in 1765, where he served churches in Orange and Bute (now Franklin and Warren) counties. Later he moved to a colony to Granville County, settling 12 miles north of Oxford, and serving the churches of Nutbush and Grassy Run Creek for about 20 years. He also taught a classical school in Oxford.

For his scholarly attainments, Hampden-Sydney conferred upon him the degree of Master of Arts, April 25, 1787. He died in 1801.

All Pattillos in the U.S. are related, being descended from two brothers, Henry and George Pattillo.

Henry Pattillo in the Revolution: Because of his prominence, Henry Pattillo was one of those sent by Gov. Tryon to Pacify the Regulators. He also served on the Committee of Safety in the Halifax District. He was a delegate to the Provincial Congress at Hillsboro, N.C. in August, 1775. Being a minister he was made Chaplain of the Congress. He was Chairman of the Committee of the Whole when this Congress first considered the "Mecklenburg Resolutions" for independence. These resolutions were tabled for the time, but the next Spring when the Provincial Congress met at Halifax to choose delegates to the Continental Congress at Philadelphia, the resolutions were again considered and adopted, some two months before the "Declaration of Independence" was adopted at Philadelphia, Jul. 4, 1776.

Henry Pattillo was Chairman of the Committee of the Whole when Independence was declared by the Provincial Congress of North Carolina during the Revolution, when that body instructed its delegates to the Continental Congress-- Colonial Records. The above facts were taken from "Sketches of North Carolina and the Churches of Orange and Granville Counties", Chapter 16, by Rev. William Henry Foote.

PUBLIC RECORDS OF THOMAS POINDEXTER.

The first record we have been able to find is that of his marriage to Susan Hughes, June 28, 1755, from William and Mary quarterly, Cumberland County, Va. No children from this marriage.

And also his second marriage to Elizabeth Pledge, with William Pledge's letter of consent, Feb. 12, 1760, original marriage bond, Goochland Co., Va. marriage record. Twelve children from this marriage.

Thomas Poindexter called of Goochland Co., buys two tracts of land, in 1760, on one of these deeds Nimrod Poindexter was a witness. Deed book 8-70-77.

Feb. 19, 1760 Thomas Poindexter of St. James Parish, Goochland Co., sells one of the lots of land bought in Jan. 1760 and on April 15, 1760 his wife Elizabeth relinquishes dower. 8-246-248.

In March 1772 Thomas Poindexter is called of Carolina. Fee book 1772 page 12. He is also called the same in 1773 page 31.

Jan. 13, 1762 Thomas Poindexter sells two parcels of land, 90 acres each which he bought in 1758, and on May 18, 1762 his wife Elizabeth relinquishes her dower.

Sep. court 1765, on the motion of Nimrod Poindexter, at the suit of David Clarkson, it is ordered that the said Thomas Poindexter, pay him for three day attendance and coming and returning, sixty miles twice, 430 lbs. of tobacco. Order book 10-87.

From the above Thomas seems to have been in Goochland Co., up to 1765 and between that and 1772 he moved to N. C. Surrey Co. He was also closely related in some way to Nimrod, who lived in Newkent Co., Va.

We find that he invested in five hundred acres of land in N. C., near East Bend where he reared a large family of twelve children.

He, Thomas, was in the Revolution, said to have fought at Kings Mountain and Cowpens. A certificate of his services, both as private and Captain of Militia can be secured, and the data may be found in North Carolina Revolutionary Army Accounts.

Vol. VIII, Page 75 Folio 4, and Page 76 Folio I-- in possession of N. C., Historical Commission.

Thomas Poindexter died Jan. 1st, 1806, Division of his land was made in 1807.
